Privacy notice for pupils, students, learners, and trainees

The information you supply is used by the Learning Records Service (LRS). The LRS issues Unique Learner Numbers (ULN) and creates Personal Learning Records across England, Wales, and Northern Ireland, and is operated by the Department for Education (DfE) in England. We receive your personal data from:

- accredited achievement data supplied by awarding organisations

The aims of LRS are to:

- last known post code
- date of birth
- gender
